which will scald the faces. Wretched is the drink, and evil is the resting place.

30. Indeed, those who believe and do good deeds, indeed, We will not let go waste the reward of any one who does good deeds.

31. Those will have Gardens of Eden underneath which rivers flow. They will be adorned therein with bracelets of gold and green garments of fine silk and heavy brocade, reclining therein on adorned couches. Excellent is the reward, and good is the resting place.

32. And set forth to them the example of two men: We provided for one of them two gardens of grapes, and We bordered them with date-palms and placed (fields of) crops between them. Each of the two gardens brought forth its produce and did not fall short thereof in anything. And We caused to gush forth within them a river.

33. And he had fruit, so he said to his companion while he was talking with him, "I am greater than you in wealth and stronger (in respect of) men."

34. And he entered his garden while he was unjust to himself. He said, "I do not think that this will ever perish."

35. And he entered
36. And I do not think the Hour will occur. And even if I am brought back to my Lord, I will surely find better than this as a return.”

37. His companion said to him while he was talking with him, “Do you disbelieve in One Who created you from dust, then from a minute quantity of semen, then fashioned you into a man?

38. But as for me, He is Allah, my Lord, and I do not associate anyone with my Lord.

39. And why did you not say, when you entered your garden, ‘What Allah wills; there is no power except with Allah.’ Although you see me less than you in wealth and children,

40. It may be that my Lord will give me better than your garden and will send upon it (your garden) a calamity from the sky, and it will become a slippery ground,

41. Or its water will become sunken (into the earth), so you would never be able to find it.”

42. And his fruits were surrounded (by ruin), so he began twisting his hands over what he had spent.
on it, while it had collapsed upon its trellises, and he said, "Oh! I wish I had not associated anyone with my Lord."

43. And he had no group to help him other than Allah, nor was he supported.

44. There, the protection is only from Allah, the True, He is the best to reward and the best for the final end.

45. And present to them the example of the life of this world. (It is) like the water which We send down from the sky, then the vegetation of the earth mingle with it, then it becomes dry stalk, which are scattered by the winds. And Allah is Able to do all things.

46. Wealth and children are the adornment of the life of this world. But the enduring good deeds are better in the sight of your Lord for reward and better in respect of hope.

47. And the Day We will cause the mountains to move and you will see the earth as a leveled plain, and We will gather them and We will not leave behind anyone from them.

48. And they will be presented before your Lord in rows (and He will say), "Certainly, you have come to Us just as We created you the first time. Nay, you claimed that We had not made for you an appointment.”

49. And the Book (of Deeds) will be placed, and you will see the criminals fearful of what is in it, and they will say, “Oh, woe to us! What is this Book that leaves nothing small or great except that it has enumerated it?” And they will find what they did presented (before them). And your Lord will not deal unjustly with anyone.

50. And when We said to the Angels, “Prostrate to Adam,” so they prostrated except Iblis. He was of the jinn and he rebelled against the Command of his Lord. Then, will you take him and his offspring as protectors other than Me while they are enemies to you? Wretched for the wrongdoers is the exchange.

51. I did not make them witness the creation of the heavens and the earth nor their own creation, and I would not have taken the misleaders as helpers.

52. And the day when He will say, “Call those whom you claimed to be My partners,” then they will call them, but they will not respond to them. And We will make a barrier between them.

53. And the criminals will see the Fire and will be certain that they are to fall in it. And they will not find from it a way of escape.

54. And certainly,
We have explained in this Quran every example for mankind. But man is in most things quarrelsome.

55. And nothing prevents men from believing when guidance has come to them and from asking forgiveness of their Lord except that comes to them the way of the former people or comes to them the punishment before them?

56. And We did not send the Messengers except as bearers of glad tidings and as warners. And those who disbelieve dispute with falsehood, to refute the truth thereby. And they take My Verses and that of which they are warned in ridicule.

57. And who is more wrong than he who is reminded of the Verses of his Lord but turns away from them and forgets what his hands have sent forth? Indeed, We have placed coverings over their hearts, lest they understand it, and in their ears is deafness. And if you call them to guidance, then never they will be guided.

58. And your Lord is the Most Forgiving, Full of Mercy. If He were to seize them for what they have earned, He would have hastened for them the punishment. But for them is an appointed time from which they will never find an escape.
And those towns—We destroyed them when they wronged, and We made for their destruction an appointed time.

And when Musa said to his boy (servant), “I will not cease until I reach the junction of the two seas or continue for a long period.”

But when they reached the junction between them, they forgot their fish, and it took its course into the sea, slipping away.

Then when they had passed beyond it, he (Musa) said to his boy (servant), “Bring us our morning meal. Certainly we have suffered fatigue in this journey.”

He said, “Did you see when we retired to the rock? Indeed, I forgot the fish. And none made me forget it except the Shaitaan—that I should mention it. And it took its course into the sea amazingly.”

He (Musa) said, “That is what we were seeking.” So they returned, retracing their footsteps.

Then they found a servant from among Our servants to whom We had given mercy from Us, and We had taught him knowledge from Us.

Musa said to him, “May, I follow you on (the condition) that you teach me from what you have been taught of right guidance?"

67. He said, "Indeed, you will never be able to have patience with me.

68. And how can you have patience for what you do not encompass in knowledge."

69. He (Musa) said, "If Allah wills, you will find me patient, and I will not disobey your order."

70. He said, "Then if you follow me, do not ask me about anything until I mention to you about it."

71. So they both set out until when they had embarked on the ship, he made a hole in it. He (Musa) said, "Have you made a hole in it to drown its people? Certainly, you have done a grave thing."

72. He said, "Did I not say that you will never be able to have patience with me?"

73. He (Musa) said, "Do not blame me for what I forgot and do not be hard upon me in my affair raising difficulties."

74. Then they both set out until they met a boy, then he killed him. He (Musa) said, "Have you killed a pure soul for other than (having killed) a soul? Certainly, you have done an evil thing."
